

Learn English living in UK

About the course

While studying at Open Doors, learners can work towards ESOL, Functional Skills and Personal Progression qualifications. This currently does not apply to our evening classes.

Our qualifications are accredited by NOCN, City and Guilds or Ascentis, as appropriate. The qualifications and skills gained through studying English at Open Doors are designed to enable our learners to communicate effectively and to give learners the essential, practical skills needed for their everyday lives.

Our learners are empowered through the improvement of their reading, writing, speaking and listening skills and through a better understanding of the English language.
